Perriello to challenge Aiken Democrat Christopher “Mudcat” Perriello will face incumbent GOP state Sen. Glenn Aiken in the state Senate’s 17th District, the newly formed district is headed to a November 8 runoff. The race has been a long-awaited event in South Carolina politics and will be the first statewide race in the state since 2008, when

Democratic Sen. Jim DeMint and former Republican Sen. Tim Scott, now a Democrat, successfully advanced to a November runoff. Aiken, also a Democrat, is seeking a second term. Perriello, who recently resigned from Congress, is considered a long shot and was recently overtaken in fundraising by Republican state Sen. Tom Davis. Perriello sought to use his national profile to shore up his campaign, with a $2 million national ad buy touting the Democrat's progress on gun control and transportation issues. Perriello has not distanced himself from the Obama administration; he has not said whether he would support Obama's 2014 budget proposal and did not respond to request for comment from Breitbart News. The district was drawn by the South Carolina Supreme Court to be an "invited pickup" for Republicans in an election cycle that Democrats entered believing they had a real chance to win five seats statewide. The now-redistricted district, which is entirely in Hampton County, has a population of more than 121,000 with an average household
