Green Dot MoneyPak Hack Zip ((FULL))

In most cases, these criminals tell victims they have warrants for their arrest for various offenses. The scammers demand immediate payment of $450 or $14,915.72 in one hour. They give multiple ATM cards they say are from different locations, which will all be drained in a few minutes. The scammers can obtain victims address and other personal information by making small talk and asking personal questions. The victim may have their computer shut off or be tricked into visiting a website that appears to be government-run but which was actually a fake look alike site. Once a victim agrees to pay via Green Dot MoneyPak, they are then forced to make a payment online using a prepaid phone card. Their Green Dot prepaid card has been drained of all their money and is now worthless. The criminal continues to demand immediate payment of another $450 or $14,915.72 in one hour. The victim is unaware the criminal has now seen their identity information and will use this for identity theft. Victims are often unaware they have been scammed until it is too late. Suspicious activity should be reported to your local police or other relevant local law enforcement agencies. Green Dot is a division of the COB Bank Group, which includes COB Bank, and is part of the First National Bank of Omaha. The Prepaid Card products and services offered by the COB Bank Group are not insured by the FDIC or any other federal government agency. The prepaid card accounts are not deposits or obligations of COB Bank or any other member of the COB Bank Group and the funds you load on the card are not guaranteed by the card issuer or the bank.
